

WALES

INTERNATIONAL

RESULTS

In 1990 some ex-pat New Zealanders introduced Touch Football to the Welsh landscape. The pioneers of this era were Davis Swain, Paul Nepia and Moro Smith. They introduced the sport throughout the regions of Wales and with the assistance of Neil Perkins the group formed the Wales Touch Association in 1999.

Other early pioneers were Clive Thomas, Owen Smith and John Lloyd and on the 15th April 1999 Wales became the 23rd Member of the Federation of International Touch.

As a developing Nation Wales entered a Mixed team in the inaugural European Championships in 1996 and came second to a very strong Japan Aichi team. Spurred on by their success they returned two years later and won both the Men and Mixed divisions thus setting a trend for their International success ever since culminating with a third overall in the Masters divisions at the 2011 World Cup.

In the recent Home Nations Championships they finished second overall to England but were successful in winning the Women Open Division.
