Brian Charles was the instigator of getting Touch Football moving forward into an organised sport in Spain. He hailed from the tiny Spanish colony off the African Coast, The Canary islands.

Prior to Brian's involvement in 1999 Touch Rugby was played in pockets all over the country. Early pioneers were Ramon A Bernat Pazos from Montrove, Oleiros. Jorge Rodriguez from the Atlantico Rugby Club and Miguel Jesus Martin Dorta from Santa Cruz de Tenerife.

The Canary islands sent a Mens and Mixed team to the 2000 European Championships and Brian then arranged a Spanish team for the 2008 Championships. After returning home in 2000 he began the process of establishing the sport on the mainland.

Problems arose as to who should lead the Spanish Touch Association but in 2004 Spain became the thirty second member of the Federation of International Touch with Brian Charles as their President and Monica Trabadelo Trabadelo as Secretary.

The tyranny of distance and lack of resources saw Brian unable to continue then under the guidance of Olivier Guitart from Barcelona, Juan Rastrilla from Valencia and Jenny Lee the sport started expanding within the Country. Teams went to the 2011 and 2012 European Championships and a Men 35 Year team entered the 2011 World Cup
