Touch in Thailand started predominantly at club level in the form of Touch sections within Rugby or Sports Clubs. Some early pioneers were Dave Dufall, Suwanna Vigitsakui and Andrea Franklin

Women's Touch was the most popular but mixed teams grew quickly under the expertise and guidance of Anthony Orchard, James and Jenny Te Amo. The key Sports clubs playing Touch in Thailand were the Southerner's, Pattaya, British Club, Corsairres, and Phuket.

Touch was also being played at International Schools, namely International School of Bangkok (ISB), the Bangkok Patana School, Harrow International School, Dulwich International School, and International School of the Regents.

The first known league for Bangkok, titled the "Bangkok Touch League" (BTL), commenced on Saturday 9th November 2002, comprising 6 teams in each of the Women's, Men's, and Mixed divisions.

A Meeting held on Monday 23rd September 2002 agreed that a National Association should be formed to include a broader section of the community and then seek International recognition (Touch Rugby Association of Thailand (TRAT)). This was achieved when Thailand became the thirty first member of F.I.T. on 10th March 2003 paving the way for a Mixed team to be represented at the Japan World Cup that year and two year later at the Youth World Cup in Australia.

With such a transient population, Committee Members moved on and Anthony and company were posted away from Thailand leaving a void. In 2006 Dana Piggott and Joanne Arthur took over while Cameron Sinclair from the New Zealand Embassy offered assistance. Time and work beat them all and Thailand Touch now lies in Limbo
